OVERVIEW

The Platnium Studios Employee Handbook (the “Handbook”) has been developed to provide general guidelines about Platnium Studios policies and procedures for employees. It is a guide to assist you in becoming familiar with some of the privileges and obligations of your employment, including Platnium Studio’s policy of voluntary at-will employment. None of the policies or guidelines in the Handbook are intended to give rise to contractual rights or obligations, or to be construed as a guarantee of employment for any specific period of time, or any specific type of work. Additionally, with the exception of the voluntary at-will employment policy, these guidelines are subject to modification, amendment or revocation by Platnium Studios at any time, without advance notice. The personnel policies of Platnium Studios are established by the Board of Directors, which has delegated authority and responsibility for their administration to the Executive Director. The Executive Director may, in turn, delegate authority for administering specific policies. Employees are encouraged to consult the Executive Director for additional information regarding the policies, procedures, and privileges described in this Handbook. Questions about personnel matters also may be reviewed with the Executive Director. Platnium Studios will provide each individual a copy of this Handbook upon employment. All employees are expected to abide by it. The highest standards of personal and professional ethics and behavior are expected of all Platnium Studios employees. Further, Platnium Studios expects each employee to display good judgment, diplomacy and courtesy in their professional relationships with members of Platnium Studios's Board of Directors, committees, membership, staff, and the general public.

III. VOLUNTARY AT-WILL EMPLOYMENT Unless an employee has a written employment agreement with Platnium Studios, which provides differently, all employment at Platnium Studios is "at-will." That means that employees may be terminated from employment with Platnium Studios with or without cause, and employees are free to leave the employment of Platnium Studios with or without cause. Any representation by any Platnium Studios officer or employee contrary to this policy is not binding upon Platnium Studios unless it is in writing and is signed by the Executive Director with the approval of the Board of Directors.

IV. EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY Platnium Studios shall follow the spirit and intent of all federal, state and local employment law and is committed to equal employment opportunity. To that end, the Board of Directors and Executive Director of Platnium Studios will not discriminate against any employee or applicant in a manner that violates the law. Platnium Studios is committed to providing equal opportunity for all employees and applicants without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, sexual orientation, disability, political affiliation, personal appearance, family responsibilities, matriculation or any other characteristic protected under federal, state or local law. Each person is evaluated on the basis of personal skill and merit. Platnium Studios's policy regarding equal employment opportunity applies to all aspects of employment, including recruitment, hiring, job assignments, promotions, working conditions, scheduling, benefits, wage and salary administration, disciplinary action, termination, and social, educational and recreational programs. The Executive Director shall act as the responsible agent in the full implementation of the Equal Employment Opportunity policy. Platnium Studios will not tolerate any form of unlawful discrimination. All employees are expected to cooperate fully in implementing this policy. In particular, any employee who believes that any other employee of Platnium Studios may have violated the Equal Employment Opportunity Policy should report the possible violation to the Executive Director. If Platnium Studios determines that a violation of this policy has occurred, it will take appropriate disciplinary action against the offending party, which can include counseling, warnings, suspensions, and termination. Employees who report, in good faith, violations of this policy and employees who cooperate with investigations into alleged violations of this policy will not be subject to retaliation. Upon completion of the investigation, Platnium Studios will inform the employee who made the complaint of the results of the investigation. Platnium Studios is also committed to complying fully with applicable disability discrimination laws, and ensuring that equal opportunity in employment exists at Platnium Studios for qualified persons with disabilities. All employment practices and activities are conducted on a non-discriminatory basis. Reasonable accommodations will be available to all qualified disabled employees, upon request, so long as the potential accommodation does not create an undue hardship on Platnium Studios. Employees who believe that they may require an accommodation should discuss these needs with the Executive Director. If you have any questions regarding this policy, please contact the Executive Director.

V. POLICY AGAINST WORKPLACE HARASSMENT Platnium Studios is committed to providing a work environment for all employees that is free from sexual harassment and other types of discriminatory harassment. Employees are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner and to show respect for their co-workers. Platnium Studios's commitment begins with the recognition and acknowledgment that sexual harassment and other types of discriminatory harassment are, of course, unlawful. To reinforce this commitment, Platnium Studios has developed a policy against harassment and a reporting procedure for employees who have been subjected to or witnessed harassment. This policy applies to all work-related settings and activities, whether inside or outside the workplace, and includes business trips and business-related social events. Platnium Studios's property (e.g. telephones, copy machines, facsimile machines, computers, and computer applications such as e-mail and Internet access) may not be used to engage in conduct that violates this policy. Platnium Studios's policy against harassment covers employees and other individuals who have a relationship with Platnium Studios which enables Platnium Studios to exercise some control over the individual's conduct in places and activities that relate to Platnium Studios's work (e.g. directors, officers, contractors, vendors, volunteers, etc.).

Prohibition of Sexual Harassment: Platnium Studios's policy against sexual harassment prohibits sexual advances or requests for sexual favors or other physical or verbal conduct of a sexual nature, when: (1) submission to such conduct is made an express or implicit condition of employment; (2) submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as a basis for employment decisions affecting the individual who submits to or rejects such conduct; or (3) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an employee's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, humiliating, or offensive working environment. While it is not possible to list all of the circumstances which would constitute sexual harassment, the following are some examples: (1) unwelcome sexual advances -- whether they involve physical touching or not; (2) requests for sexual favors in exchange for actual or promised job benefits such as favorable reviews, salary increases, promotions, increased benefits, or continued employment; or (3) coerced sexual acts. Depending on the circumstances, the following conduct may also constitute sexual harassment: (1) use of sexual epithets, jokes, written or oral references to sexual conduct, gossip regarding one's sex life; (2) sexually oriented comment on an individual's body, comment about an individual's sexual activity, deficiencies, or prowess; (3) displaying sexually suggestive objects, pictures, cartoons; (4) unwelcome leering, whistling, deliberate brushing against the body in a suggestive manner; (5) sexual gestures or sexually suggestive comments; (6) inquiries into one's sexual experiences; or (7) discussion of one's sexual activities. While such behavior, depending on the circumstances, may not be severe or pervasive enough to create a sexually hostile work environment, it can nonetheless make co-workers uncomfortable. Accordingly, such behavior is inappropriate and may result in disciplinary action regardless of whether it is unlawful. It is also unlawful and expressly against Platnium Studios policy to retaliate against an employee for filing a complaint of sexual harassment or for cooperating with an investigation of a complaint of sexual harassment.

Prohibition of Other Types of Discriminatory Harassment: It is also against Platnium Studios's policy to engage in verbal or physical conduct that denigrates or shows hostility or aversion toward an individual because of his or her race, color, gender, religion, sexual orientation, age, national origin, disability, or other protected category (or that of the individual's relatives, friends, or associates) that: (1) has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile, humiliating, or offensive working environment; (2) has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance; or (3) otherwise adversely affects an individual's employment opportunities. Depending on the circumstances, the following conduct may constitute discriminatory harassment: (1) epithets, slurs, negative stereotyping, jokes, or threatening, intimidating, or hostile acts that relate to race, color, gender, religion, sexual orientation, age, national origin, or disability; and (2) written or graphic material that denigrates or shows hostility toward an individual or group because of race, color, gender, religion, sexual orientation, age, national origin, or disability and that is circulated in the workplace, or placed anywhere in Platnium Studios's premises such as on an employee's desk or workspace or on Platnium Studios's equipment or bulletin boards. Other conduct may also constitute discriminatory harassment if it falls within the definition of discriminatory harassment set forth above. It is also against Platnium Studios's policy to retaliate against an employee for filing a complaint of discriminatory harassment or for cooperating in an investigation of a complaint of discriminatory harassment. Reporting of Harassment: If you believe that you have experienced or witnessed sexual harassment or other discriminatory harassment by any employee of Platnium Studios, you should report the incident immediately to your supervisor or to the Executive Director. Possible harassment by others with whom Platnium Studios has a business relationship, including customers and vendors, should also be reported as soon as possible so that appropriate action can be taken. Platnium Studios will promptly and thoroughly investigate all reports of harassment as discreetly and confidentially as practicable. The investigation would generally include a private interview with the person making a report of harassment. It would also generally be necessary to discuss allegations of harassment with the accused individual and others who may have information relevant to the investigation. Platnium Studios's goal is to conduct a thorough investigation, to determine whether harassment occurred, and to determine what action to take if it is determined that improper behavior occurred. If Platnium Studios determines that a violation of this policy has occurred, it will take appropriate disciplinary action against the offending party, which can include counseling, warnings, suspensions, and termination. Employees who report violations of this policy and employees who cooperate with investigations into alleged violations of this policy will not be subject to retaliation. Upon completion of the investigation, Platnium Studios will inform the employee who made the complaint of the results of the investigation. Compliance with this policy is a condition of each employee's employment. Employees are encouraged to raise any questions or concerns about this policy or about possible discriminatory harassment with the Executive Director. In the case where the allegation of harassment is against the Executive Director, please notify the staff member designated as grievance officer. VI. SOLICITATION Employees are prohibited from soliciting (personally or via electronic mail) for membership, pledges, subscriptions, the collection of money or for any other unauthorized purpose anywhere on Platnium Studios property during work time, especially those of a partisan or political nature. "Work time" includes time spent in actual performance of job duties but does not include lunch periods or breaks. Non-working employees may not solicit or distribute to working employees. Persons who are not employed by Platnium Studios may not solicit or distribute literature on Platnium Studios's premises at any time for any reason. Employees are prohibited from distributing, circulating or posting (on bulletin boards, refrigerators, walls, etc.) literature, petitions or other materials at any time for any purpose without the prior approval of the Executive Director or his/her designee. VII. HOURS OF WORK, ATTENDANCE AND PUNCTUALITY A. Hours of Work The normal work week for Platnium Studios shall consist of five (5), seven (7) hour days. Ordinarily, work hours are from 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, including one hour (unpaid) for lunch. Employees may request the opportunity to vary their work schedules (within employer-defined limits) to better accommodate personal responsibilities. Subject to Platnium Studios work assignments and Executive Director approval, the employee's supervisor shall determine the hours of employment that best suits the needs of the work to be done by the individual employee.

B. Attendance and Punctuality Attendance is a key factor in your job performance. Punctuality and regular attendance are expected of all employees. Excessive absences (whether excused or unexcused), tardiness or leaving early is unacceptable. If you are absent for any reason or plan to arrive late or leave early, you must notify your supervisor and the office manager as far in advance as possible and no later than one hour before the start of your scheduled work day. In the event of an emergency, you must notify your supervisor as soon as possible. For all absences extending longer than one day, you must telephone your immediate supervisor prior to the start of each scheduled workday. When reporting an absence, you should indicate the nature of the problem causing your absence and your expected return-to-work date. A physician's statement may be required as proof of the need for any illness-related absence regardless of the length of the absence. Except as provided in other policies, an employee who is absent from work for three consecutive days without notification to his or her supervisor or the Executive Director will be considered to have voluntarily terminated his or her employment. The employee's final paycheck will be mailed to the last mailing address on file with Platnium Studios. Excessive absences, tardiness or leaving early will be grounds for discipline up to and including termination. Depending on the circumstances, including the employee's length of employment, Platnium Studios may counsel employees prior to termination for excessive absences, tardiness or leaving early.

C. Overtime

Overtime pay, which is applicable only to Non-Exempt Employees, is for any time worked in excess of 40 hours in a work week. Only the Executive Director or his or her designee, upon the request of an employee's supervisor, may authorize overtime. Overtime rate is one and one-half times (1½) the employee's straight time rate, except in instances involving a Sunday or holidays when the rate is two times the regular rate. Payment of overtime will be provided in the pay period following the period in which it is earned.

Approved salary deductions may include: federal and state income taxes; social security, Medicare, and state disability insurance; voluntary medical and group hospitalization insurance premiums (if in force and if paid by employee) and other benefits (e.g., life insurance, retirement). X. WORK REVIEW The work of each employee is reviewed on an ongoing basis with the supervisor to provide a systematic means of evaluating performance. The annual performance review is a formal opportunity for the supervisor and employee to exchange ideas that will strengthen their working relationship, review the past year, and anticipate Platnium Studios's needs in the coming year. The purpose of the review is to encourage the exchange of ideas in order to create positive change within Platnium Studios. To that end, it is incumbent upon both parties to have an open, and honest discussion concerning the employee's performance. It is further incumbent upon the supervisor to clearly communicate the needs of Platnium Studios and what is expected of the employee in contributing to the success of Platnium Studios for the coming year. Both supervisor and employee should attempt to arrive at an understanding regarding the objectives for the coming year. This having been done, both parties should sign the performance review form, which will be kept as part of the employee's personnel record and used as a guide during the course of the year to monitor employee progress relative to the agreed upon objectives. The Executive Director reviews the work of all supervisors. Work reviews for other staff are the responsibility of the appropriate supervisor, subject to confirmation by the Executive Director. XI. For eligibility requirements, refer to the Plan document for each benefit program. Continuation of any benefits after termination of employment will be solely at the employee's expense and only if permitted by policies and statutes. The Executive Director will determine levels of deductibility and co-payments for all insurance related benefits annually. A. Health/Life Insurance Platnium Studios currently provides individual health and dental insurance benefits for eligible full-time and part-time employees except those who are insured through their spouse, retired military, or other plans, beginning after the first full month of employment. LEAVE BENEFITS AND OTHER WORK POLICIES A. Holidays Full-Time Employees are eligible for 11.5

holidays per year as follows: New Year's Day Martin Luther King, Jr.'s Birthday President's Day Memorial Day Independence Day Labor Day Columbus Day Veteran's Day Thanksgiving Day The Day After Thanksgiving Day Christmas Eve (1/2 Day) Christmas Day Full-time employees (employees who regularly work at least 35 hours per week) receive one (1) paid day off for each full day of holiday time. Holiday benefits for Part-Time employees will be pro-rated in accordance with the hours regularly worked by the employee. Employees wishing to take religious holidays may substitute a religious holiday for one of those listed above, with advance approval from their supervisor and the Executive Director. Temporary employees are ineligible for holiday leave benefits. In those years when Independence Day, Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, and New Year's Day fall on Saturday or Sunday, the Executive Director will designate the work day that will replace the weekend holiday.

B. Vacation During the first 90 days of employment full- and part-time employees will not earn Vacation benefits. During the remaining nine months of first year employment, a full-time employee will earn two weeks (10 days) of paid Vacation. Full-time employees will continue to earn two weeks (10 days) of Vacation during the second year of employment. In their third year of employment, full-time employees will earn three weeks (15 days) of Vacation. During the fourth year and thereafter, full-time employees will earn four weeks (20 days) of Vacation per year. Temporary employees are ineligible for Vacation benefits. Vacation benefits are prorated accordingly for Part-Time employees. Use of Vacation is subject to approval by the supervisor and Executive Director and must be requested in hourly increments, using the appropriate leave request form.. Employees are expected to use Vacation benefits in the fiscal year in which Vacation is earned. Employees may carry over unused Vacation from one year to the next only with the approval of the Executive Director. Employees may not accrue more than the maximum leave they are allowed. Once an employee reaches his or her annual ceiling, the employee ceases to accrue any additional Vacation benefits. If an employee later uses enough Vacation benefits to fall below the ceiling, the employee starts to accrue leave again from that date forward until he or she reaches his or her Vacation ceiling. Accordingly, employees are encouraged to use all Vacation benefits in the fiscal year in which they are earned in order to avoid reaching the ceiling limit. C. Sick Leave Sick leave benefits are earned on a prorated basis of one day (7 hours) per month for full-time employees beginning at first day of employment. Part-time employees receive prorated sick leave benefits, (i.e., 3.5 hours per month if the Employee works 17.5 hours per week). Temporary employees are not eligible for paid sick leave benefits. Use of sick leave is subject to approval by the supervisor and the Executive Director and must be requested in hourly increments. Unused sick leave can accumulate from year to year up to a maximum of 30 days (210 hours) for full-time employees. This limitation on accrual of sick leave benefits is prorated accordingly for part-time employees. No sick leave benefits are paid upon separation of employment from Platnium Studios for any reason. If an employee's illness or injury requires a consecutive absence of five (5) days or more, physician documentation will be required. Platnium Studios also may recommend that the employee apply for state disability insurance (SDI). If the employee receives SDI and the compensation does not equal the employee's sick leave accruals, Platnium Studios will make up the difference until all sick leave benefits are used.

D. Personal Leave Platnium Studios provides three (3) days of personal leave per calendar year to all Full-Time and Part-Time employees who have completed six months of employment. Personal leave benefits are prorated accordingly for part-time employees. Temporary employees are not eligible for paid personal leave benefits. Personal leave is accrued at the beginning of each year and cannot be carried into the next year. Personal leave may not be taken in the first six (6) months of employment. All personal leave is subject to prior approval by the supervisor and Executive Director and must be requested in hourly increments. No personal leave benefits are paid upon separation from employment with Platnium Studios for any reason.

E. Military Leave Employees who are inducted into or enlist in the Armed Forces of the United States or are called to duty as a member of a reserve unit may take an unpaid leave in accordance with applicable law. The employee must provide advance notice of his or her need for a military leave and Platnium Studios will request a copy of the employee's orders, which will be kept on record by Platnium Studios. The time an employee spends on military leave will be counted as continuous service for the purpose of determining eligibility and accrual for various benefit plans and policies. For military leaves extending 30 days or less, Platnium Studios will continue to pay the portion of the premium on health insurance, if any, that it was paying before military leave began. In order to continue such health insurance, the employee must continue to pay his or her portion of premiums during this period. For military leaves extending beyond 30 days, the employee will have the option to continue his or her insurance coverage at the employee's cost. Upon return from military leave, employees will be reinstated as required by law and benefits will be reinstated with no waiting periods."

F. Civic Responsibility Platnium Studios believes in the civic responsibility of its employees and encourages this by allowing employees time off to serve jury duty when required and to serve as nonpartisan Election Day poll workers when appropriate and approved.

1. Jury Duty. For time served on jury duty, Platnium Studios will pay employees the difference between his or her salary and any amount paid by the government, unless prohibited by law, up to a maximum of ten days. If an employee is required to serve more than ten days of jury duty, Platnium Studios will provide the employee with unpaid leave. Employees must provide Platnium Studios a copy of proof of service received by court in which they serve.

2. Election Day Poll Workers. Platnium Studios will pay employees the difference between his or her salary and any amount paid by the government or any other source, unless prohibited by law for serving as an Election Day worker at the polls on official election days (not to exceed two elections in one given calendar year). While performing their official nonpartisan duties at the polls, Election Day workers may not engage in political activity or campaign for or against any candidate or ballot measure. Platnium Studios requires that employees provide proof of service for their time at the polls. Employees interested in using this benefit, must have written approval from the Executive Director 30 days before the election. The Executive Director will assure that the employee's absence will not seriously interfere with the organization's operations.

F. Parental Leave
The DC Parental Leave Act entitles employees to certain unpaid parental leave. For purposes of this section only, the following definitions apply: (1) "parent" means the natural mother or father of a child; a person who has legal custody of a child or who acts as a guardian of a child regardless of whether he or she has been appointed legally as such; an aunt, uncle or grandparent of a child; or a spouse to the above individuals; (2) "school-related event" means an activity sponsored by either a school or an associated organization such as a parent-teacher association which involves the parent's child as a participant or subject, but not as a spectator, including a student performance, such as a concert, play or rehearsal, the sporting game of a school team or practice, a meeting with a teacher or counselor, or any similar type of activity. A parent is entitled to a total of 24 hours of unpaid leave during any 12-month period to attend or participate in school-related events for his or her child. Platinum Studios reserves the right, however, to deny such leave if such a leave would disrupt Platinum Studios's operations. While parental leave is unpaid, employees may elect to use accrued vacation or personal leave. If the need for parental leave is foreseeable, the employee must provide a written notice and request for parental leave at least 10 days prior to the event. If the employee's need for parental leave is not foreseeable 10 days prior to the event, the employee must provide a written notice and request for parental leave as soon as he or she learns of the need for such leave.

G. Bereavement Leave
Employees shall be entitled to bereavement leave with pay of five (5) days in the event of a death in the employee's immediate family (spouse/life partner, child or parent) and three (3) days for grandparent, sister or brother, father-in-law, mother-in-law, or grandchildren. If an employee wishes to take time off due to the death of an immediate family member, the employee should notify the Executive Director immediately. Approval of bereavement leave will occur in the absence of unusual operating requirements. An employee may use, with the Executive Director's approval, available paid leave for additional time off as necessary and in accordance with operating needs.

H. Extended Personal Leave
Employees who have been employed by Platinum Studios for at least one year may apply for personal leaves of absence for up to eight weeks. Personal leaves are unpaid and are discretionary with the management of Platinum Studios. When considering a request for a personal leave, Platinum Studios will consider factors such as the employee's position, the employee's length of service, the employee's performance record including attendance, the purpose of the leave, the needs of the department in which the employee works, the effect of the leave on other employees, and Platinum Studios's general business needs. Personal leaves generally are unpaid. However, accrued vacation or personal time may be used to continue an employee's salary during the leave. Vacation and sick time will not continue to accrue during the leave of absence. Medical and life insurance benefits will continue on the same basis as if the employee were actively working. Platinum Studios cannot guarantee reinstatement upon return from a personal leave. Platinum Studios will, however, make a reasonable effort to place the employee in an available position for which he or she is qualified. If such a position is not available, then the employee's employment will terminate. Even in that event, the employee may later apply for reemployment. Employees who fail to report to work after an approved leave of absence are deemed to have voluntarily resigned. When an approved leave has been exhausted, the employee may request additional leave. The Executive Director must approve all unpaid leave.

I. Severe Weather Conditions
Platinum Studios closes when federal government offices in the Washington metropolitan area are closed due to severe weather conditions. Platinum Studios also will follow a liberal leave policy when the federal government announces that liberal leave is applicable. Under Platinum Studios's liberal leave policy, annual and/or personal leave may be taken without prior scheduling and approval if the employee is unable to reach the office due to severe weather conditions. J. Meetings and Conferences Staff may be given limited time off by the Executive Director with pay to participate in educational opportunities related to the staff member's current or anticipated work with Platnium Studios. An employee serving as an official representative of Platnium Studios at a conference or meeting is considered on official business and not on leave. XIII.

REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES Reimbursement is authorized for reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in carrying out job responsibilities. Mileage or transportation, parking fees, business telephone calls, and meal costs when required to attend a luncheon or banquet, are all illustrative of reasonable and necessary expenses. Employees serving in an official capacity for Platnium Studios at conferences and meetings are reimbursed for actual and necessary expenses incurred, such as travel expenses, meal costs, lodging, tips and registration fees. When attending meetings that have been approved by the Executive Director, employees are reimbursed for travel expenses, course fees, and costs of meals and lodging at the current rates. Employees may also request a travel advance to cover anticipated expenses approved travel. Employees also may be granted leave to attend a conference or professional meeting related to their professional development, and/or Platnium Studios's current and anticipated work. Expenses for these purposes can be paid by Platnium Studios, if funds are available, and the employee obtains prior written approval of such expenses. Employees are responsible for transportation costs between the office and home during normal work hours. Transportation costs are paid by Platnium Studios for work outside normal work hours if the employee is on official business for Platnium Studios. Employees authorized to use their personal cars for Platnium Studios business are reimbursed at the U.S. Internal Revenue Service approved rate. Forms are provided to request reimbursement for actual expenses and advance payment for travel. Receipts must be provided for all expenditures made in order to claim reimbursement. XIV. SEPARATION Either Platnium Studios or the employee may initiate separation. Platnium Studios encourages employees to provide at least two weeks (10 days) written notice prior to intended separation. After receiving such notice, an exit interview will be scheduled by the Executive Director or his or her designee. The Executive Director has authority to employ or separate all other employees. Circumstances under which separation may occur include:

COMPUTER AND INFORMATION SECURITY This section sets forth some important rules relating to the use of Platnium Studios's computer and communications systems. These systems include individual PCs provided to employees, centralized computer equipment, all associated software, and Platnium Studios's telephone, voice mail and electronic mail systems. Platnium Studios has provided these systems to support its mission. Although limited personal use of Platnium Studios's systems is allowed, subject to the restrictions outlined below, no use of these systems should ever conflict with the primary purpose for which they have been provided, Platnium Studios's ethical responsibilities or with applicable laws and regulations. Each user is personally responsible to ensure that these guidelines are followed. All data in Platnium Studios's computer and communication systems (including documents, other electronic files, e-mail and recorded voice mail messages) are the property of Platnium Studios. Platnium Studios may inspect and monitor such data at any time. No individual should have any expectation of privacy for messages or other data recorded in Platnium Studios's systems. This includes documents or messages marked "private," which may be inaccessible to most users but remain available to Platnium Studios. Likewise, the deletion of a document or message may not prevent access to the item or completely eliminate the item from the system. Platnium Studios's systems must not be used to create or transmit material that is derogatory, defamatory, obscene or offensive, such as slurs, epithets or anything that might be construed as harassment or disparagement based on race, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, age, physical or mental disability, medical condition, marital status, or religious or political beliefs. Similarly, Platnium Studios's systems must not be used to solicit or proselytize others for commercial purposes, causes, outside organizations, chain messages or other non-job-related purposes. Security procedures in the form of unique user sign-on identification and passwords have been provided to control access to Platnium Studios's host computer system, networks and voice mail system. In addition, security facilities have been provided to restrict access to certain documents and files for the purpose of safeguarding information. The following activities, which present security risks, should be avoided.

- Passwords should not be shared between users. If written down, password should be kept in locked drawers or other places not easily accessible.

- Programs should never be downloaded from bulletin board systems or copied from other computers outside the company onto company computers. Downloading or copying such programs also risks the introduction of a computer virus. If there is a need for such programs, a request for assistance should be directed to computer support or management. Downloading or copying documents from outside the company may be performed not to present a security risk.
- Users should not attempt to boot PCs from floppy diskettes. This practice also risks the introduction of a computer virus.

- Computer games should not be loaded on Platnium Studios's PCs.
- Unlicensed software should not be loaded or executed on Platnium Studios's PCs.
- Company software (whether developed internally or licensed) should not be copied onto floppy diskettes or other media other than for the purpose of backing up your hard drive. Software documentation for programs developed and/or licensed by the company should not be removed from the company's offices.
- Individual users should not change the location or installation of computer equipment in offices and work areas. Requests for such changes should be directed to computer support or management.

There are a number of practices that individual users should adopt that will foster a higher level of security. Among them are the following:

- Turn off your personal computer when you are leaving your work area or office for an extended period of time.
- Exercise judgment in assigning an appropriate level of security to documents stored on the company's networks, based on a realistic appraisal of the need for confidentiality or privacy.
- Remove previously written information from floppy diskettes before copying documents on such diskettes for delivery outside Platnium Studios.
- Back up any information stored locally on your personal computer (other than network based software and documents) on a frequent and regular basis.
